FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

INDIANAPOLIS COLTS DEFENSIVE BACK KENNY MOORE II JOINS A KID AGAIN BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Moore Named Honorary Board Member for Local Chapter

Indianapolis, IN (September 21, 2020) – The Indiana chapter of A Kid Again is excited to announce that Kenny Moore II, the star cornerback for the Indianapolis Colts, has been named as an honorary member of their board of directors, further supporting the growing organization for which he has become so passionate.

“We could not be more excited to welcome Kenny Moore to our board as he brings valuable leadership and a deep desire to support our mission of providing hope, happiness and healing to families dealing with the effects of having a child with a life-threatening condition,” said Katie Pappas, executive director of the Indiana Chapter. “Kenny has invited our families to games through his “Moore 1ove” ticket block, walked the runway during our Haunted Runway Fashion Show Adventure, and most importantly, helped families make heartwarming memories together.”

Moore first became involved with the organization after befriending A Kid Again child Mason Garvey (#MightyMason), often visiting him at home and at the hospital to play games and offer encouragement. Moore called him his “lil bro” and even brought Mason onto the field for Colts games. Because of their special relationship, many other A Kid Again families were positively impacted, getting the opportunity to create lasting memories with Moore and the Colts. After a courageous battle, Mason’s fight with cancer ended in June 2020. Since then, Moore has become close with several A Kid Again families and is always one of the last to leave Adventures to ensure he has time to connect with each child.

“I am very excited to be named an honorary board member for A Kid Again,” said Moore. “I am passionate about the great work that they do for kids facing life-threatening health issues. I have been privileged to meet some great kids and families through the program, especially Mason. I really cherish the time I got to spend with him and helping A Kid Again to fulfill their mission is my small way of carrying on his memory.”

To celebrate his new role with A Kid Again, as well as the Colts’ first win of the season, Moore has put his game-worn jersey from last Sunday’s win over Jacksonville up for bid at www.victorymondays.net/kennymoore. All of the net proceeds from the auction will benefit A Kid Again.

Moore joined the Colts in 2017, after playing for a brief time with the New England Patriots. Prior to that, he played college football at Valdosta State.
