

The Children We Serve, Together

*Muscular Dystrophy, Spina Bifida, chromosomal conditions, seizure disorders, and severe asthma

- 90% of families said AKA Adventures have strengthened their family during difficult times
- 94% of families had an experience that was not otherwise possible
- 97% of kids had a unique experience and a chance to feel special
- 85% of our families reported enhanced feelings of hope
- 90% of kids said they feel greater acceptance by others and fear the public eye less

Through this experience, students truly begin to understand the meaning of gratitude, selflessness, and service which are three attributes that will help students succeed in any future endeavor.

– Tom Gabram, Principal at Kenston High School

FUELING Adventures For KIDS

The students knew they wanted to support a charity that helped many. They knew they wanted to support a charity that helped local families. They knew they wanted to help a charity that they could connect with. They wanted to make a difference.

– Lynne Hamilton,
Parent Fundraising Advisor at Kenston High School

Giving illness a time out

Rise to the Challenge!

Did you know that every year, more than 27,000 children in the U.S. are diagnosed with a life-threatening condition? And at any given time, there are 5,000 children in the U.S. living out the last five months of their life?

That's where A Kid Again can help. A Kid Again provides much-needed relief for the entire family through participation in our program – at no cost

With the help of our community, at A Kid Again, we provide year-round recreational therapy to improve the lives of children with life-threatening conditions and their families, in addition to other resources to help families cope.

FUELED BY KIDS, FOR KIDS

At A Kid Again, we've seen first-hand the power of kids in our communities when they become fueled by the idea of helping local families get the support they need. They feel a greater sense of purpose when, of their own choosing, their focus becomes delivering hope, healing, and connection to families dealing with life-threatening conditions.

Fundraising with A Kid Again is a great way for kids to educate fellow peers about acceptance of those that are different or those that feel left out. Many children, and their siblings, who are dealing with life-threatening conditions often feel isolated because the kids around them don't understand what they're going through. Opening the doors for communication can mean everything for A Kid Again children to feel acceptance.

School-aged kids who participate in fundraising can also earn community service hours, build a resume, and develop important leadership skills that will help them later in life.

FUEL FOR FUNDRAISING

A Kid Again provides all the Educational and Fundraising Resources you need!

- Coming Soon! Educational Components: We'll help you make the most of our Fueling Adventures – for Kids! Program by offering resources you can use in your curriculum, including word finds, coloring sheets, videos, and a tool kit to help you get started.
- Coming Soon! Resource Center: We'll provide balloons, banners, bracelets, paper balloons and other swag items for your fundraising use.

Help your students understand the importance of helping others with our Fueling Adventures – for Kids program.

Benefits:

- Students can support other students benefiting from A Kid Again's mission
- Opportunity for students to empathize with others going through life-threatening conditions
